General Practice

Beach Baker's General Practice team are widely recognised as the market leaders within the sector. With our comprehensive understanding of the industry and knowledge based approach we are able to identify and secure the most suitable candidates for each position.

With UK based teams of specialist consultants; many with property backgrounds or significant experience recruiting in the sector, our mandates range from graduate and newly qualified surveyors to board level appointments.

Working across all commercial and alternative property types, our clients include global property consultancies, property companies, developers, asset managers, corporates, charities, public sector organisations and institutions.

Our General Practice team covers the following disciplines:

- Agency
- Asset Management
- Corporate Real Estate
- Development & Consultancy
- Investment & Capital Markets
- Landlord & Tenant
- Property & Estate Management
- Rating
- Valuation

Client Testimonials...

"Colliers recently appointed Beach Baker... the process of recruitment (which I'd anticipated to be agonising) was well structured and hassle free. In our initial meeting the consultants demonstrated an excellent understanding of our business and asked pertinent questions about the organisation, the role and the kind of candidate that I was looking for. Within 24 hours of our first meeting they had made a recommendation on a candidate (the one that was ultimately successful) and within a week had lined up 5 interviews with strong candidates who were keen to work for the company."

Director, Colliers International

"Through Beach Baker I have secured three excellent team members, each of whom is still with me and progressing quickly along his/her career path. The quality of candidates provided is always first class but probably the main reason for me returning to Beach Baker whenever I have a recruitment need is because they ensure the candidate fully understands what the job specification is and they vet accordingly."

Director, Corporate Real Estate Management, Cushman & Wakefield

"Beach Baker provide a tailored and specialist property recruitment service and have successfully placed a number of excellent candidates in my teams in both Birmingham and Bristol. They understand our sector, they ask relevant questions and provide a knowledge based service, which is market leading within my region."

Senior Director, Head of Property Management, CBRE

"We had become frustrated with a lack of competence and poor service received from purely London-based agencies over the last few years. Beach Baker delivered exactly what we wanted and expected from a recruitment agency; they promptly arranged a briefing meeting, agreed a competitive fee, searched and interviewed a large number of candidates within 2-3 weeks, proposed an excellent shortlist of quality candidates, co-ordinated two rounds of interviews and we promptly hired two people. Efficient, effective and professional - what else could you ask for?"

Director, Insite Poster Group

"I was very pleased with the service which you gave LSH in our successful attempt to secure a Rating Surveyor based in Bristol office. You sent us through details of a variety of good candidates, whose CVs accurately represented their experience, and from whom we were able to find a number of candidates who were suited to the position. The requirement had to be circulated more than once, due to the competitive nature of employment in this sector of the market. Your enthusiasm for the job did not falter and we ended up employing the best of the candidates seen. Craig has now settled in well and is delivering on the promise shown in the interview process. I would definitely use your services again and would recommend you to others."

Head of Rating, Regional Director, Lambert Smith Hampton

"I have worked with Beach Baker for a number of years and always found them to be extremely professional. They have strong market insight, add value to the recruitment process and have excellent contacts. I would happily recommend their specialist services."

Director of Lease Consultancy, Cushman & Wakefield

"Beach Baker have placed a number of excellent candidates within the Leeds office in recent years. They understand the regional market and our needs at an office and corporate level. As a supplier they are always professional, up to speed and on the ground in the local market."
